BEWARE of new 'drugs in parcel' cyber scam

A city pharmacist recounts his experience with a fraudulent caller

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (BCT)- Cybercrimes are evolving daily, with perpetrators devising new fraudulent methods to deceive unsuspecting individuals. These criminals meticulously gather information and execute their schemes, with even the slightest oversight leading to severe repercussions, including potential loss of life for vulnerable targets.

To deceive, these fraudsters go to great lengths, replicating logos of reputable organisations like the Delhi Police, Intelligence Bureau, Airport Security and Customs Department. While their presented information may seem legitimate initially, closer examination reveals discrepancies.

Exploiting vulnerabilities, they coerce hefty payments under the guise of verification fees, swiftly draining bank accounts. Unfortunately, even educated individuals fall victim to these schemes, as fraudsters often target those with financial means.

The most recent cyber fraud incident in Mysuru involved pharmacist N. Raghavan, proprietor of Raghulal & Co, who narrowly avoided falling victim to financial fraud thanks to his vigilance.

According to Raghavan, he received a call yesterday morning from the number +91 85280-83919, purportedly from Delhi.

Call regarding parcel

The caller claimed that a parcel, supposedly booked by Raghavan, contained 16 duplicate passports, 58 ATM cards and 140 grams of MDMA, intercepted by the Customs Commissioner at the Indira Gandhi International Airport in Delhi on its way to Malaysia.

GREATNESS OF PADUKA: When people start good deeds, it is customary to seek elders' permission and blessings to complete the task without any hindrance.

Navalpakkam Sri Vasudevaachariar said in a discourse that Acharya Sri Vedanta Desika showed himself as an example. The Acharya invoked the blessings of four persons before starting to write "Sri Paduka Sahasram," which glorifies the power of the divine sandals (paduka) of Lord Ranganatha.

In the first sloka, Sri Vedanta Desika invokes the blessings of great noblemen who bear on their heads the divine paduka of Sri Ranganatha, which empowers even the dust from their feet to sanctify and protect people from all inauspiciousness.

In the second sloka, the Acharya pays his homage to Bharatha who showed first to the world the greatness of paduka. He worshipped the sandals of Sri Rama, placing them on the throne and ruled the kingdom for 14 years just as a proxy to Rama. The Acharya pays his homage to Sri Nadhamunigal, who was like Bharatha to Sri Nammazhwar.

In the third verse, the Acharya pays his obeisance to Sri Nammazhwar, who bears the name of Sataari (paduka), being absorbed in Sri Ranganatha's feet.

Inmate escapes jail disguised as woman

Despite having a dark skin tone, Alvarado managed to trick several prison guards that he was a blond woman by putting on a wig and female clothes, most likely brought in by his girlfriend. Make all pedestrian crossing signal lights functional

Sir,

It has been observed with grave concern that most of the pedestrian crossing traffic lights installed across the city, along with those for vehicles, are non-functional. The purpose behind their installation becomes perplexing when they fail to serve any practical use. Have these lights been installed merely for aesthetic purposes, devoid of any functionality?

It appears that little consideration has been given to pedestrians' needs during the installation of these traffic signals. Are they intended solely for motorists, neglecting the safety and convenience of pedestrians?

Pedestrians often find themselves vulnerable to the whims of motorists when attempting to cross the road at non-functional pedestrian crossing signals. Motorists, driven by impatience, frequently disregard pedestrian safety, crossing the line even before the lights turn green, thereby endangering those waiting to cross the road safely.

Numerous accidents at road junctions can be attributed to non-functional pedestrian crossing lights, highlighting the urgent need for corrective action.

Hence, I earnestly request the authorities concerned to prioritise the functionality of all pedestrian crossing lights. This will ensure the safety of pedestrians and enable them to cross the road securely.

BJP-JD(S) meet vows for victory of NDA nominees in Karnataka

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (MK&BS)-The leaders of BJP-JD(S) coalition blew the poll bugle at the abode of Goddess Chamundeshwari and resolved to work towards the victory of National Democratic Alliance (NDA) candidates in all the 28 Lok Sabha Constituencies of the State in the elections.

The leaders like former Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy, BJP State President B.Y. Vijayendra, JD(S) Core Committee President G.T. Devegowda, MP Prathap Simha, BJP candidate of Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, Chamarajanagar BJP candidate S. Balaraj, former Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan, ex-MLAs S.R. Mahesh and N. Mahesh among several other leaders of old Mysuru region exhibited their strength, daring Congress for a fight in the electoral arena, during the maiden BJP-JD(S) Convention held at Kalingarao Mantapa, Dasara Exhibition Grounds in the city yesterday.

G.T. Devegowda said, "I am influenced by Goddess Chamundeshwari to speak on these lines. Nobody can forget the contributions of Maharajas of Mysore. Shouldn't we acknowledge their contributions with a vote? Likewise we should ensure the victory of Balaraj in Chamarajanagar to retain the contributions of sitting MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad. If you think like Modi, Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat can set the tone for victory in all the 28 LS seats in Karnataka."

Is Siddu astrologer to predict my defeat in Mandya? asks HDK

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (MK&BS)-H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK), former Chief Minister and National Democratic Alliance (NDA) candidate for Mandya Lok Sabha (LS) Constituency, asked whether Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is an astrologer to predict his defeat in the ensuing elections. It is for the voters of the Constituency to decide such matters.

Speaking to media persons on the sidelines of BJP and JD(S) Coordination Meeting at Hotel Southern Star in city on Wednesday, HDK said "Let them say whatever they want dubbing me as an outsider or insider of Mandya. But I am a Kannadiga, who got his political birth in Ramanagar and political force in Mandya and Mysuru."

"When my son contested the previous Lok Sabha elections, even Congress party was with us. Hence the failure of Siddaramaiah was also the reason behind his (son's) debacle in the elections. Siddaramaiah who held the reins as CM for five years himself had lost the elections in Mysuru. The people themselves will give a fitting reply to your jeering remarks," said Kumaraswamy.

There is no opposition to BJP and JD(S) alliance at any Constituencies of the State including Mandya and Kolar. Congress that is worried over the wave in favour of coalition candidate Dr. C.N. Manjunath in Bangalore Rural LS seat is wooing voters by distributing sarees and cookers, he alleged.

Addressing the meeting later, Kumaraswamy gave a call to BJP and JD(S) leaders and workers to coordinate with each other and ensure the victory of coalition candidates.

'My Booth, My Party' should be Congress workers' slogan: CM

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (PM&BS)-Chief Minister Siddaramaiah gave a clarion call to the party workers to chant the slogan of 'My Booth and My Party' projecting themselves as the candidate to ensure the victory of the party nominee M. Lakshmana in the elections from Mysuru-Kodagu LS Constituency.

He was speaking after inaugurating the meeting of Congress workers from Krishnaraja, Chamaraja and Narasimharaja Assembly Constituencies organised in the premises of Congress Bhavan on JLB road in the city on Wednesday.

"Former Minister Kote M. Shivanna has returned to Congress party. I had spoken with him before the Assembly elections offering him an invitation to the party which is the right place for him. It is only the Congress party that vouches for secular ideologies, social justice, democratic system and faith in Constitution. Hence it is not right to associate with a communal party like BJP and Shivanna might have realised that," said Siddaramaiah.

Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar, who is also the KPCC President said "The list of BJP leaders waiting to join the party is long and be it any leader who has criticised our party in the past, but if they are willing to join the party accepting our ideologies, give them an opportunity." Earlier, MLA and former Minister Tanveer Sait took charge as the Working President of KPCC. Co-operative leaders Vasu and Shashikala Nagaraj also rejoined Congress party on the occasion.

Though the Congress is yet to officially announce the name of Sunil Bose, son of Mysuru District In-charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, as the party candidate for Chamarajanagar seat, the Mysuru District Congress Committee (DCC) in a notification issued on Tuesday, mentioned Sunil Bose as the party candidate and the campaigning started on Wednesday.

The schedule of the meetings has been listed by DCC President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar. The notification states that the schedule has been fixed with prior permission of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar, who is also the KPCC President.

The notification further said that Mysuru-Kodagu LS Constituency Congress candidate M. Lakshmana too will file his nomination papers in Mysuru on the same date, Apr. 3.

Bose had planned to contest from his father Dr. Mahadevappa's T. Narasipur (SC) Assembly segment in the May 2023 polls, while Dr. Mahadevappa himself had planned to contest from neighbouring Nanjangud Assembly segment.

However, former Chamarajanagar MP R. Dhruvanarayan, another strong aspirant for the Nanjangud seat, passed away suddenly in the run up to the polls, when the Congress announced the candidature of late Dhruvaranayan's elder son Darshan Dhruvanarayan for the seat.

Dr. Mahadevappa then contested from his T. Narasipur seat, which kept his son Sunil Bose's wait longer.

Now his wait has come to an end and Sunil Bose has got the chance to contest the LS polls as the Congress candidate from Chamarajanagar (SC) seat, currently held by former Union Minister V. Sreenivasa Prasad of the BJP.

CM dares FM Nirmala Sitharaman for open debate

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (BLU&BS)-Chief Minister Siddaramaiah dared Union Finance Minister (FM) Nirmala Sitharaman for an open debate on the funds owed to State Government by the Centre.

He was speaking during a convention organised at Bhootale Grounds in Vidyaranyapuram in the city on Wednesday, where BJP leader and former Chairman of Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) H.V. Rajeev joined Congress party.

"Let her (Nirmala Sitharaman) come for the debate on a common platform, we will discuss about the issue and let people also know the truth," said CM reiterating his invite to the Union Minister.

Referring to the recent visit of Nirmala Sitharaman to Mysuru where she had outrightly denied owing any funds from the Centre to the State, CM dismissed it as an utter lie.

He also came down heavily on Janata Dal (Secular) party and said 'They have joined hands with a communal party like BJP due to the fear of losing the elections.'

'The regional party has got three Lok Sabha Constituencies in return, while the party supremo H.D. Deve Gowda has sent his son-in-law Dr. C.N. Manjunath to BJP. The voters should defeat them as both the parties have formed a truck only due to the fear of losing the polls,' he said.

City advocates accord rousing reception to Yaduveer

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (GA&BS)- BJP candidate for the Lok Sabha elections from Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar was accorded a grand welcome during his visit to Mysore Bar Association premises at Law Courts Complex on Krishnaraja Boulevard here this morning.

Yaduveer was received by the advocates, with Nadaswara played in the backdrop along with the bursting of fire crackers.

Addressing the gathering of advocates, Yaduveer said "We (the erstwhile royal family and advocates) share a good rapport with legal fraternity helping the royal family in various legal matters. We are indebted to them and in the future too we will continue to share the same cordial relationship."

Advocate B.R. Chandramouli, State Bar Council Member said, "Irrespective of party affiliations, we have pledged our support to Yaduveer. When the candidature of Yaduveer was announced, there were some confusions about whether he will mingle with people like a commoner. However, if one takes a peek into the background of Yaduveer, such feelings will be addressed. The victory of Yaduveer is certain, but he should win by a huge margin."

Mysore Bar Association President Mahadevaswamy recalled that "Yaduveer's father late Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, who was also a MP, had sanctioned Rs. 10 lakh for the construction of Bar Association building, from his MP Local Area Development (MPLAD) Fund."

BEWARE of new 'drugs in parcel'

Stressing the need for parcel verification, the caller provided confidential details, including Raghavan's Aadhaar number, mobile number, receiver's name and address, transaction ID number, parcel number, and dispatch date of 16-3-2024.

The caller informed Raghavan that the parcel and its contents required further investigation and requested his cooperation. Subsequently, the caller sent Raghavan an arrest warrant via WhatsApp under IPC sections 359, 360, 364A, 370, 390, 400, 411, 413 and 414. Claiming that the warrant was issued by a Judicial Magistrate First Class in New Delhi, the caller stated that it had been handed over to the Connaught Place Police Station for execution.

Money laundering charge

The caller laid a firm trap, telling Raghavan that it had been discovered that he (Raghavan) had obtained a loan from HDFC Bank for the purchase of a house and a car. However, an official named Sanjay Singh from HDFC Bank in Mumbai had purportedly been utilising Raghavan's documents to open an account in his name and conduct money laundering activities.

The caller said that Raghavan, having authorised Sanjay Singh to conduct bank transactions, inadvertently enabled Singh to exploit his identity for illicit financial activities. Singh allegedly conducted transactions totalling approximately Rs. 380 crore in money laundering schemes using Raghavan's account, with Rs. 38 crore being transferred to Raghavan's account as part of this fraudulent operation.

The caller informed Raghavan that an investigation into Sanjay Singh's illegal activities was currently underway. Consequently, IPC Sections 411, 413 and 414 had been filed, and the Judicial Magistrate Court (First Class) in New Delhi had directed the Delhi Police to investigate the matter.

Threat of CBI

The caller informed Raghavan about the necessity to investigate illegal money transactions and a human trafficking case, indicating that the CBI would take over the case due to its sensitive nature. Subsequently, the caller sent a letter signed by CBI Director Praveen Sood, seeking further information about Raghavan's other bank accounts and financial transactions. Raghavan, alert to the situation, disclosed to the caller that Praveen Sood was the former Mysuru City Police Commissioner and that he shared a close relationship with him.

Raghavan mentioned their long-standing friendship and frequent meetings for meals. Upon hearing this, the caller fell silent momentarily. Sensing Raghavan's familiarity with Praveen Sood, the caller's aggressive demeanour softened considerably.

Alertness prevented fraud

Realising the suspicious nature of the call, Raghavan kept the anonymous caller on hold and promptly contacted Somashekhar from the Cyber Crime Division at Vontikoppal Police Station to report the number. Upon returning to the call, the caller inquired why he had been placed on hold, to which Raghavan attributed it to an automatic glitch.

The caller then reassured Raghavan, suggesting that the parcel may have been mistakenly addressed to him and that a thorough investigation would be conducted to close the case. With that, he promptly ended the call.

Later, Somashekar informed Raghavan that the caller had been identified as Anil Kumar, son of Babu Singh from Jalakhanapura, Uttar Pradesh. Suspecting it to be a scam, he cautioned Raghavan to exercise vigilance and refrain from divulging any information to the caller.

Call from FedEx!

Nandini Srinivasan, a reader of Star of Mysore, shared her experience where she received a suspicious call on Mar. 21. The caller claimed to be from FedEx company, informing her that a parcel she sent to Iraq from Mumbai had been rejected and required further explanation. The caller instructed her to press 1 for more details.

Upon pressing 1, a person on the line mentioned Nandini's name and phone number, adding to the authenticity of the call. However, upon realising the dubious nature of the call, Nandini promptly expressed her suspicions and refused to engage further. The call was abruptly disconnected thereafter.

Nandini lost the number from which the call originated, highlighting the challenges faced in tracking and reporting such fraudulent activities.

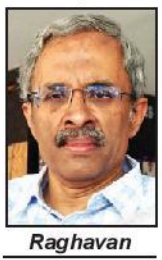
How do scammers access confidential data?



Raghavan

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Raghavan raised a pertinent question regarding the alarming ease with which scammers access sensitive information such as mobile numbers, Aadhaar numbers and bank details. Highlighting the common practice of banks and reputable institutions requesting Aadhaar numbers for transactions or other purposes, Raghavan questioned how scammers acquire such detailed information, including mobile numbers.

Furthermore, he pointed out that many companies, including those affiliated with banks, often solicit information directly, without our explicit consent or awareness. This data is then sold to marketers and advertisers so that they use the data for targeted marketing. This, he emphasised, exposes individuals to potential cyber threats, as those with knowledge of information technology, including scammers, exploit these vulnerabilities to engage in cybercrime.

Warning about the global reach of cybercrime networks, Raghavan stressed the complexity involved in recovering lost funds from such scams. He cautioned that failure to exercise caution could result in significant financial losses and many unsuspecting individuals have already fallen prey to these sophisticated syndicate operations.

Three huge trees axed

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (BLU&KS)- It seems that there is an increase in tree felling in city of late with three huge trees being axed at Social Welfare Department Office premises and at SBI premises in Saraswathipuram.

This incident just a few days after the Forest Department registered a case after a huge 40-year-old tree was felled near Saraswathipuram 1st Main.

Reason: The tree was obstructing the view of an under-construction commercial complex. Now, the three huge trees were felled to facilitate construction of a canteen, it is learnt and ironically, no permission was taken to axe the tree, which has angered environmentalists, who said that if such indiscriminate felling of trees continues in city, it will cause adverse effect on the environment. Meanwhile, Range Forest Officer (RFO) Sudhindra said that three trees have been axed in a private place without taking permission.

Spot inspection was conducted and the felled trees have been seized, the RFO said and added that the owner of the private place will be questioned and future course of action will be initiated.

Fraud with e-bank guarantees

Banks cheated of Rs. 168 crore; CA arrested by Bengaluru Police

Bengaluru, Mar. 28 - The Bengaluru Cybercrime Police have arrested a 45-year-old Chartered Accountant (CA) Ashish Saxena from Noida, Uttar Pradesh, for allegedly deceiving 11 individuals by issuing fake e-bank guarantees totalling Rs.168 crore.

Bengaluru City Police Commissioner B. Dayananda stated that a complaint was filed against Saxena for providing counterfeit e-bank guarantees to contractors.

Saxena targeted victims, including civil contractors and allegedly offered them counterfeit e-bank guarantees in exchange for a commission of Rs. 5 crore. e-bank guarantees involve an electronic issuance process, reducing the time required for issuance from several working days to mere minutes.

After receiving the fake e-bank guarantees, the victims uploaded them under the names of ICICI Bank and South Indian Bank on National e-Governance Services Limited (NeSL), using login credentials provided by Saxena. Following a complaint filed by a NeSL official on Feb. 7, the Police interrogated the victims, eventually uncovering Saxena's involvement. The Police tracked Saxena to Kuwait and immigration authorities detained him on Mar. 13 at Indira Gandhi International Airport in New Delhi upon his arrival from Kuwait. Police seized two laptops, six mobile phones, a pen drive and 10 cheque books. He has an accomplice who is at large.

Prathap Simha has a bright future in State politics: B.Y. Vijayendra

Madikeri, Mar. 28 (VNS)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Prathap Simha, who previously served as the State BJP Yuva Morcha President, was highlighted by State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra during an event held in Madikeri yesterday.

Addressing the Kodagu District BJP workers' meeting at Crystal Hall, Vijayendra reassured supporters that there was no cause for dismay over Prathap Simha missing out on the Parliamentary ticket. He explained that the decision to field Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar was made by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP National President J.P. Nadda.

Vijayendra expressed confidence in Yaduveer Wadiyar's ability to secure victory, citing the erstwhile Mysore royal family's significant contributions to developmental programmes. He anticipated Yaduveer Wadiyar's emergence with a substantial margin of two lakh votes.

Highlighting PM Modi's visionary leadership, Vijayendra emphasised India's promising future under his guidance. While acknowledging the electoral focus of most politicians, he noted PM Modi's broader vision for a fully developed India by 2047.

The State BJP President underscored the importance of concerted efforts by party workers to secure the party's return to power at the Centre.

Earlier, Vijayendra received a traditional Kodava welcome, with party workers presenting him with the 'Odikathi.'

Addressing the gathering, MP Prathap Simha expressed his dedication to the Constituency's development despite not contesting the polls. He affirmed his commitment to working alongside party workers to bolster the party's grassroots presence.

Simha also urged party workers to effectively communicate the Central Government's welfare schemes to voters.

Former MLA S.A. Ramdas encouraged party members to translate public admiration for PM Modi into electoral support.

Former MLAs K.G. Bopaiah and Appachu Ranjan, MLC Suja Kushalappa, former MLC Sunil Subramani, Party Prabhari Uday Kumar Shetty, Kodagu District BJP President Napanda Ravi Kalappa, and others were present.

No power outage in Karnataka, asserts Minister K.J. George

K.J. George

Bengaluru, Mar. 28 (KMS&VNS) - Despite the increasing demand for uninterrupted power supply, the Karnataka Government has taken proactive measures to ensure there are no power outages in the State, said Energy Minister K.J. George.

In a recent statement, the Minister highlighted that Karnataka recorded its highest power demand of Rs. 17,200 MW on Mar. 12, with 8,232 MW within BESCOM limits alone. "The daily power consumption has surged to 329 Million Units (MU), the highest ever, compared to the previous year's average of 300 MU per day. The peak demand has also risen to over 17,000 MW from 15,300 MW recorded in the previous year," he noted.

Moreover, officials have been directed to guarantee uninterrupted power supply to support students preparing for the ongoing SSLC examination and provide seven hours of uninterrupted power supply to assist the farming community with their pump sets.

"Many private wind and solar power plants in the State operate on a 'Must Run' basis, generating power depending on climatic conditions. Following negotiations with the authorities, we have secured an additional 302 MW of power from the Central Grid. Furthermore, an excess of 150 MW withdrawn from the Central Grid will be available in the State starting December," he added.

Tejaswini Gowda quits as BJP MLC

Tejaswini

Bengaluru, Mar. 28- With just a couple of months remaining in her tenure, BJP MLC Tejaswini Gowda tendered her resignation on Wednesday. Reports suggest that her decision stemmed from her disappointment over being denied the BJP ticket to contest from one of the Bengaluru LS Constituencies.

Tejaswini Gowda met with Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti in Bengaluru to formally submit her resignation. Confirming her resignation, Horatti stated that Tejaswini Gowda cited personal reasons for her decision.

"I have accepted Tejaswini Gowda's resignation as she came and submitted her resignation letter while also mentioning the reason for her decision," he added.

Tejaswini is expected to rejoin the Congress, the party with which she was previously affiliated before joining the BJP several years ago.

'Graduates Day' held at BGS International Foundation for Health Sciences

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (MTY&TRR)- District Hospital Surgeon Dr. T. Amarnath has said that it is necessary for students who want to work in medical field to nurture traits of humanitarian considerations and commitment to serve the patients.

He was speaking at the 'Graduates Day' programme of BGS International Foundation for Health Sciences organised at Bandanthamma Kalamma Kalyana Mantap in Saraswathipuram on Tuesday.

"Of late, the number of students opting to join the Nursing courses is increasing. Though this is a welcome trend, it is essential that those who come to this profession must possess humanitarian values. They should interact with the patients who come to hospitals with health issues in a responsive and humanitarian way. Only then one can become successful in their profession. If Nurses continue to serve patients with dedication it will help them to reach higher positions in their career," he opined.

Vice-Chancellor of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) Prof. Sharanappa V. Halase said that society respects those who work in health sector.

"Nurses, apart from treating the patients with affection must inspire confidence in them. In any field learning is a continuous process and students must not stop to learn new things even after their post-graduation. Practice and experience begets professional skills and students must reserve some of their time to gain more knowledge and strive towards bettering the health of the patients," he adviced.

Sri Somanatha Swamiji of Adichunchanagiri Mutt Mysuru branch graced the occasion.

In all, 57 students including Dijisha Jose, Jisamol, Aparna Unnikrishnan, Abina Anil, Bia Anne Thomas and Marlin Shaji were given Degree certificates and 4 students of Post-Graduate courses were also given Degree certificates at the function.

Distinguished guests and college lecturers lit the lamps held by the students in their hands and wished them a bright future.

Parents of graduate and post-graduate students also were present on the occasion.

District Nursing Officer K.A. Khadija, Nursing Superintendent of Cheluvamba Hospital B.A. Sulalitangi, Apollo BGS Hospitals Vice-President N.G. Bharateesh Reddy, Medical Superintendant Dr. Aman Nayak and others were present at the function.

Women's Day brings behind the scene achievers to limelight: Mallige Veeresh

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (MTY&DM)- Former Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) Chairperson Mallige Veeresh said that the International Women's Day celebrations must not be restricted to just one day and instead celebrated throughout the year by bringing behind the scene achievers to limelight.

She was speaking after inaugurating International Women's Day celebrations organised jointly by Sakhi Foundation and Surya Charitable Trust at Ramagovind Rangamandira in Ramakrishnanagar on Tuesday.

Observing that it is easier to identify the achievers in different fields, Mallige Veeresh said it is the responsibility of everyone to identify the hidden achievers and bring them to limelight.

Noting that many women have made a mark in politics too, she said that women voters play a key role in elections. She further said that this Women's Day celebrations is totally different from that of this one.

Writer B.R. Nagarathna too spoke.

Women achievers from different fields — Sudha Yoganna, Pushpa Iyengar, Vidushi Netra Nandan, Jayalakshmi Venkataramu and Sumathi Subramanya — were conferred 'Spoorthi Sakhi' award.

Former MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, social worker K. Raghuram were present.

City hosts 'Vachana Sangeethotsava' in memory of Pandit Panchakshara Gavai

Mysuru, Mar. 28 (SPN&TRR)- Vidushi Dr. Sukanya Prabhakar has said that the credit for popularising Vachana Sahitya across the country through Hindustani music goes to late Ganayogi Pandit Panchakshara Gavai.

She made this observation after inaugurating a musical programme 'Vachana Sangeethotsava' held in memory of late Ganayogi Pandit Panchakshara Gavai at Ramagovinda Rangamandir in the city recently. The programme was jointly organised by City Unit of Akhila Bharata Sharana Sahitya Parishat and Saptaswara Balaga.

"Inspired by Hanagal Kumaraswamy, Pandit Panchakshara Gavai started learning and practicising music. The Vachana Sahitya with its inherent characteristics of prose, poetry and music complements musical compositions. The contributions of Pandit Panchakshara Gavai in disseminating the messages of Vachana Sahitya across the country through Hindustani music are enormous," she said.

Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji recalled that musicians of Saptaswara Balaga gave musical touch to Vachana Sahitya at Bidaram Krishnappa Ramamandira, a few years back which laid the foundation for Hindustani music's popularity in Mysuru.

"Pandit Panchakshara Gavai, though was visually impaired, composed Vachana Sahitya in Hindustani music and contributed immensely in spreading the message of Vachana Sahitya across the globe. It is commendable that Ganayogi Pandit Panchakshara Gavai is being remembered in our city through a musical progaramme," added the Seer.

Senior Congress leader M. Pradeep Kumar, Mysuru City President of Sharana Sahitya Parishat M.G. Sadanandaiah, Secretary T.S. Kumaraswamy, Treasurer of Saptaswara Balaga H.G. Krishnappa and others were present.

After the stage programme, a Hindustani music based Vachana singing concert was presented by Pandit K. Anandkumar and Ravichandra D Dhage.

WORD OF THE DAY

Genuflect

Pronunciation: JEN-yuh-flekt (Verb)
Meaning: To genuflect is to kneel, or nearly kneel, on one knee and then rise again in worship or as an act of respect. In figurative use, genuflect means "to be humbly obedient or respectful."
Origin: Today we give reverence to genuflect, which comes from the Late Latin word genuflectere, formed from the noun genu ("knee") and the verb flectere ("to bend"). Flectere appears in the etymologies of a number of more common verbs, such as reflect ("to bend or throw back light") and deflect ("to turn aside"). By comparison genu has seen little use in English, but it did give us geniculate, a word used in scientific contexts to mean "bent abruptly at an angle like a bent knee." Despite the resemblance, words such as genius and genuine are not related to genuflect; instead, they are related (genius directly, and genuine indirectly) to the Latin verb gignere, meaning "to beget."
Example: "Many of the people whom director Rob Reiner has throwing bouquets during this documentary — Steven Spielberg, Larry David, Jon Stewart, Conan O'Brien and Sharon Stone among them — are all more famous than Mr. [Albert] Brooks, but genuflect before his comedic genius." — John Anderson, The Wall Street Journal, 9 Nov. 2023

THE ODD WORD

Cattywampus

Something that is in disarray.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Brownie points

Meaning: You use the expression 'Brownie points' to indicate a nominal mark of achievement or some kind of kudos for the performance of a positive or creditable act.
Origin: The term 'Brownie points' is a direct reference to the Brownies, a group of junior Girl Scouts who earn rewards based on merit. The term has been popular since the 1940s; an early example comes from a 1951 Los Angeles Times article called Brownie Points – A New Measure of a Husband: "You don't know about brownie points? It's a way of figuring were you stand with the little woman – favor or disfavor. Started way back in the days of the leprechauns, I suppose, long before there were any doghouses."
Example: "I'm going to earn plenty of brownie points for taking care of all these chores without being asked."
